SAID & DONE

At the end of each school year, we reflect on the times spent at Lincoln. We remember that with every day came a smile, a laugh, or even a tear. We stop to think of how much we've changed and how much we've stayed the same. In a short amount of time, we were transformed from adolescent teenagers to mature young adults. We look at all of the things that high school has given to us and how much we've given back. For the freshman, Lincoln is a new beginning, but for the senior, it's all

Traditional spirit lives on as king, queen are crowned

Homecoming, September 24-28, was five fun-filled days of excitement, spirit, and pride.

For the first year, Student Council awarded prizes to the person who demonstrated the most school spirit for each day of Spirit Week. Sophomore Paul Butler took the prize for his grass skirt and coconut bikini on Hawaiian Day. Senior Rusty Damante hippied out on 60's Day. Seniors Terry Freed and Dion Manuel tied for first place for their mix-matched, colorful costumes on Clash Day. Junior Ryan Garland got all dressed up in his tuxedo and won Dress-Up Day. Aaron Reynolds showed his school spirit while wearing an outfit of maroon and gold on Colors Day.

The Coronation Assembly was held on Thursday. Swing Choir performed Salvation Train, Shine Down, If I Ever Fall in Love Again, and Let The Sun Shine In as Dion Manuel and Sarah Meline were crowned the 1990 king and queen.

Student body displays spirit at Homecoming assembly

Everyone displayed the school colors for the pep assembly Friday. The excitement began as Prep Swing performed Ease on Down the Road. The Railettes danced to a mix of songs and the spirit chains were brought out. Winners of the float contest were announced, as well as the winners of the hall decorating contest. Seniors took first place for most creative hall theme: BUNGLE IN THE JUNGLE. Juniors won for the most school spirit. The assembly ended with the "Beat Roosevelt" chant, which psyched everyone up for the game.

Friday night's game began with much enthusiasm as the Gridders tore through the "Rip Roosevelt" sign. The Gridders were victorious over the Roughriders with a final score of 21-12.

At halftime, the Homecoming Court was introduced to many cheering fans. The Marching Band and Railettes added to the excitement with their musical performance and flag routine.

The dance, held on Saturday night, topped off the Homecoming festivities. The gym was decorated by Dorian Art and the entertainment was provided by DJ Phil Wilson of KGGO. Pictures were taken by Stover Photography.

Enthusiastic Railettes Shake It up for fans

Guided by first-year sponsor, George Hahn and Jennifer Isenhower, captain; Jenny Burch, co-captain; Jill Friesz, secretary; Yvonne Bauer, treasurer, Railettes produced many exciting performances for students, faculty, and parents. Railettes practiced early every morning from June through March. Their first performance was at the annual Chicken Bowl in late August.

Fall activities included marching with the band at home football games and attending the Valley Fest where they placed second. They also attended the State Marching Competition October 20 and performed at the Homecoming pep assembly to a mix of songs entitled Shake It.

Cheerleaders promote enthusiasm for crowds

The Cheerleaders started their season off in the summer with cheerleading camp at Iowa State University. They received the spirit stick, the highest camp award, everyday which gave them the privilege of bringing it home. They also received excellent ratings for Nationals which made them one of the top four teams in the entire camp. Kim Alber was nominated for All-American Cheerleader.

The Cheerleaders spent their time painting victory signs, helping plan pep assemblies, and motivating the crowd.

"This year we did a great job because we work so well together as a squad," said Senior Tanya Lancee. Varsity captains were Sarah Meline and Tessa Reinier. Sophomore captain was Allison Dickson. Sarah Meline commented, "As a senior and co-captain of the varsity squad, I feel that my third and final year of cheerleading has been the best one. We've all become very close this past three years and I will miss cheerleading a lot."

Freshman cheerleaders create spirit, excitement

This is the first year that Lincoln has had freshman cheerleaders. This helps them get acquainted with cheerleading and get practice in before their sophomore year. The 12 cheerleaders cheered at freshman basketball and football games. Captains were Darcy Wolver and Lisa Sanders. Lisa Sanders commented, "Freshman cheerleading is a lot of work and a lot of effort is put into it. Many people didn't believe in us, but I think our first year has paid off in the long run."

Student Council leads LHS through changes

Student Council is a group organized to benefit the school and the community. Members sold spirit ribbons during football season and organized the Homecoming Week hall decoration contest and gave prizes to the best-dressed student each day during spirit week. They also planned the annual blood drive and food drive.

The Council sponsored a Rail Rake in which many students raked the campus. Student Council sold tickets for the 43rd Annual Basketball Jamboree held at Veterans Memorial Auditorium, at which all metro teams played for six game-minutes.

Mike McIntosh, president, commented, "This year we came up with a lot of new ideas. Hopefully the Student Council of years to come will use our ideas."

Marching Band earns thirteenth 'one' rating

Superstition says that 13 is an unlucky number, but the Marching Band proved that superstition wrong when they received their thirteenth consecutive one rating at the State Marching Band competition. The band also participated in the Valley Fest where they received third overall.

In the spring the band marched in the Drake Relays Parade and at the Tulip Festival in Pella.

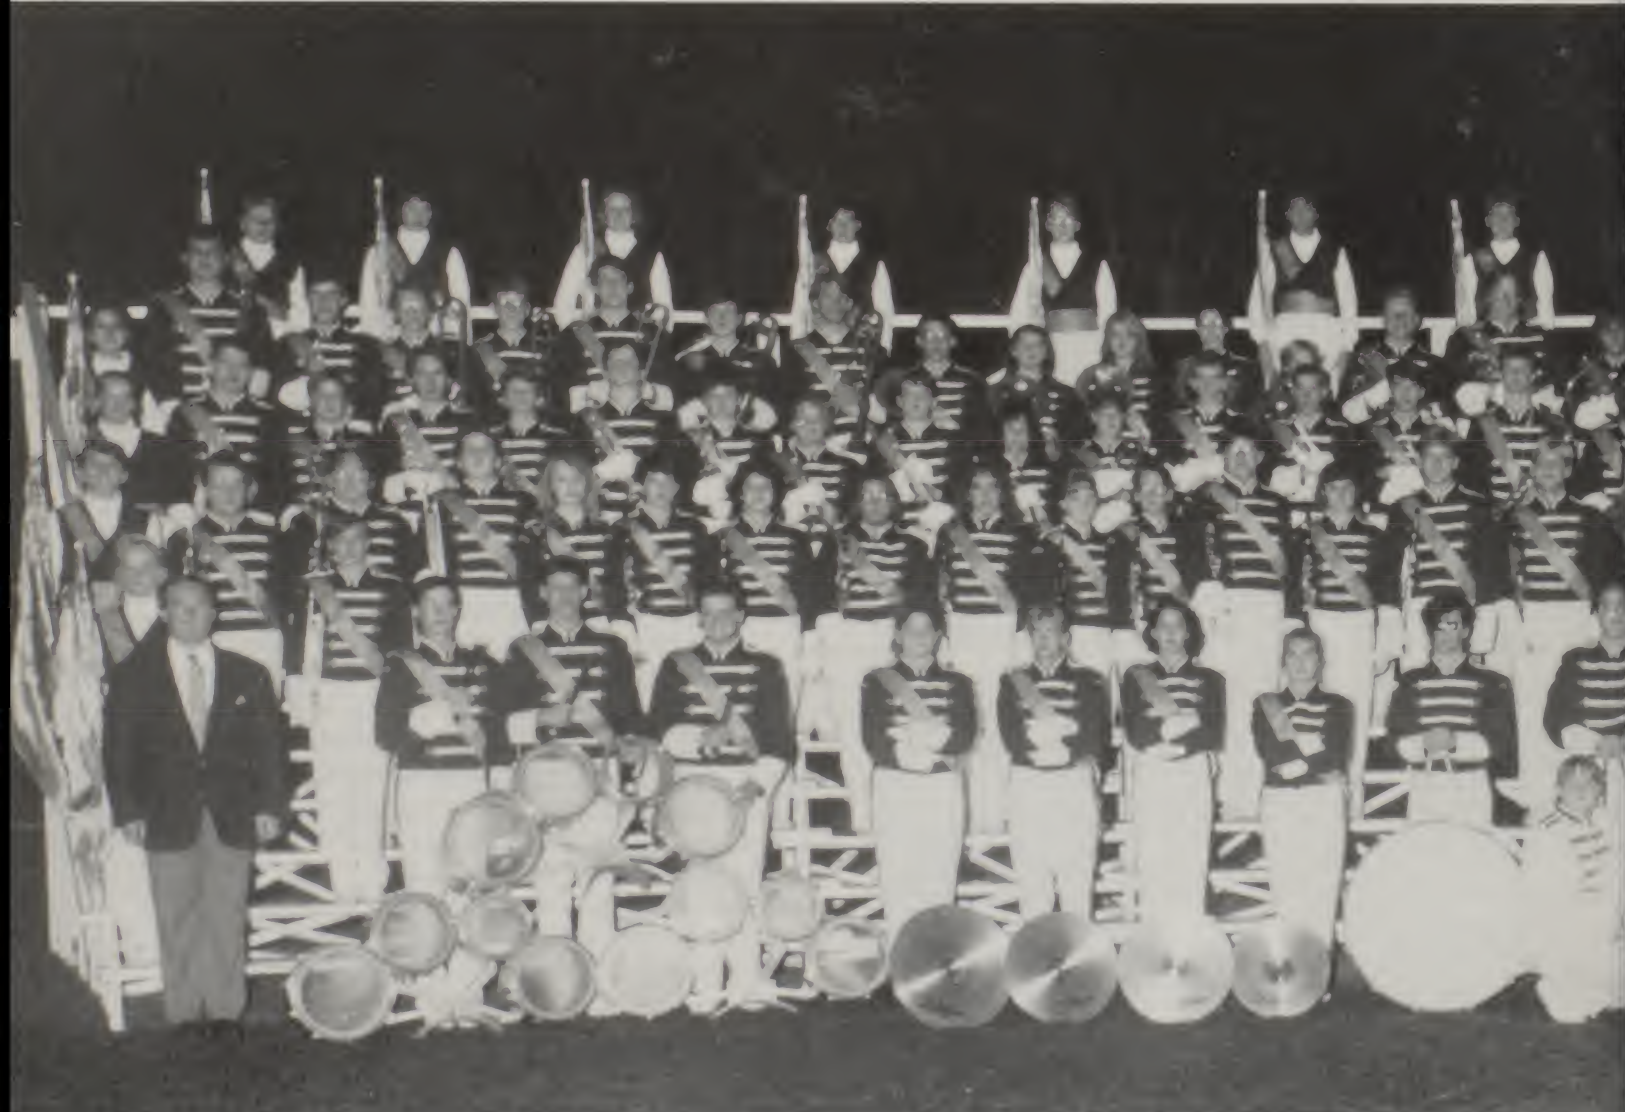

In November Dave Killinger left the marching fields to run away with the Ringling Brother and Barnum Circus. Killinger said, "Leaving Lincoln is hard for me because the community and the people are great on the southside. Being at Lincoln has been positive, but I feel I am making a positive move." Andy Hansen took over as director to finish out the year.

Peer Helpers develop communication skills

Peer Helpers is a group of 22 juniors who are chosen by teacher and former peer helper recommendations to work with junior high and other high school students.

The group meets second semester of their junior year. In this class taught by Joyce Knock and Carol White, the Peer Helpers learn useful communication and listening techniques, while also developing a positive self image. As seniors, they will put their skills to use by visiting junior highs, helping eighth graders make their transition to high school and counseling others with problems.

"Peer Helpers has been an excellent experience for me. I've learned to concentrate and pinpoint certain problems in today's society and help to better them. It is a fun class," commented Chad Fisher.

1. Lori Wilson waits patiently as Joyce Knock takes roll. 2. Tracy Rhoades and Chad Fisher write down solutions for students' problems.

Jazz I, Jazz II

Jazz I, II, when not combined as a pep band, play at various contests: Hoover, the state contest in Creston, and a Great Lake contest in Estherville, Iowa.

They also added pep and excitement to assemblies and home games throughout the school year. "We had a good year, and even though we didn't place as high as we'd like, we still pulled together as a team and tried our hardest to be as successful as possible," commented Jazz I member James Ericson.

Rails Club sponsors spirit activities, dance

Rails Club does many things to raise school spirit and to help the community. They decorate the field for Homecoming and dress up for Halloween and Easter to visit nursing homes and children's hospitals.

Rails Club produces and sells the Buzz Book and sponsors a cover contest which was won by Brad Tully. He received a gift certificate from a restaurant of his choice. In December, the club sponsored a stocking stuffer contest. Students donated small gifts for children of the Ronald McDonald House. To promote the Sweetheart Dance ticket sales, a limo ride drawing determined the winner from each grade level.

The Sweetheart Dance was held February 16 in the Bowen Roundhouse. Club members decorated with red, pink, white, and silver balloons and streamers. The theme was Crystal Ball. Music was provided by Platinum and pictures were taken by Stover Photography. Marriage ceremonies added to the night's fun. A Sweetheart and Man of the Year was selected from each grade level.

Rails Club officers were Staci Lohrman, president; Aaron Hohl, vice-president; Janelle Baker, secretary; Brent Heisner, treasurer; and Jennifer Baker, historian. Sally Fisher sponsored the group.

Dorian Art Club adds bright splashes of color to school

Dorian Art Club completed another year of brightening up the school by decorating the gym for Homecoming, hanging Christmas decorations in the front hall, and holding its first Art Fair in the spring.

The 28 students met before school and on Monday for homeroom. They were led by President Rusty Damante, Secretary Sarah Meline, Treasurer Jane Schneller, Historians Dowie Kong and Traci Teigen, and Sponsor Donna Yeast.

President Rusty Damante commented, " Our goal this year was to do more than in past years. I think that there was a lot of motivation in the club and much was accomplished. "

Conflict Managers

Twenty-four students, consisting of freshman, sophomores, and juniors, were chosen to resolve conflicts between peers. They were chosen by their peers and teachers because they possess the qualities of fairness, the ability to communicate, confidence of their peers, and an interest in having a peaceful school.

In February the conflict managers went through intensive training at Springbrook, Iowa. There they learned the conflict resolution process, a special procedure that is used to resolve problems.

Lincoln is the first Des Moines area senior high school to implement conflict management.

Math Club

Math Club is a group of math students who meet weekly and at various times throughout the year. Math Club members tutor Algebra I students.

Math Club sent two teams to Omaha, Nebraska, February 22-23 to compete in the Creighton University Math Field Day, with Jonathon Kessel placing first in the Computer Steeplechase event.

Other members also took part in the 42nd Annual American High School Examination in February.

Kiwanis Club

Eight seniors had the privilege and honor to serve as a Kiwanian for a period of one month. They were chosen by Vice-principal Al Graziano for their excellence in leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and service. During the month in which the senior served as a Kiwanian, he or she attended a luncheon every Wednesday at the Savery with key Des Moines community leaders. Each Metro school sent a representative to the luncheons.

Academic Decathlon

A team consisting of only eight young men and women placed fourth at the state finals, held March 8-9 at Denison High School in Denison. This is the team's second year in existence, and first in state-level competition.

Even though the team finished fourth, it still garnered many individual awards for team members who did well in the 2-day event. Award winners included Michael Dierling, who won six medals; Jonathan Kessel and Vong Baccam, who also won two medals each; Mike Metcalf, who also won one medal; and Steve Ryan, who won two medals for his performance.

Coach Carl Van Tuyl, Jason Quick, Michael Metcalf, Michael Deierling, Coach Ed Pilkington, and Coach Elizabeth Edwards.

Drama class is doing it, not just teaching it

Drama class has a new face leading the future theatrical artists of Lincoln. Robin Vanderhoef's first year at Lincoln was a very successful one. Drama membership has increased to 75 active students. The classes produced one-act plays, scenes, improvisations, radio shows, and skits.

Focus involved the basics of drama, acting, and the history of drama, and drama literature. Other things taught in her class were makeup, costumes, and backstage responsibilities, such as lighting and backdrops.

Mrs. Vanderhoef commented, "Most importantly, we are involved in doing and performing."

1. Shawn Wilson, Jeff Guffey and Jennifer Knight perform a skit. 2. Allison Kain unveils her face to speak. 3. Maggie Quance is on the hunt. 4. Rachel Amundson stands at the forbidden window.

Debate achieves goal of 91 NFL degrees in 1991

Forensics was led by Director of Forensics Linda Schlak; I.E. Coach Carol Dickey; Judicial and Legislative Coach Roberta Nigro; Policy Coach Patty Notch; Attorneys Tom Henderson and Dan Voogt.

Team leaders were Jodi Puls, president; Sheree Notch, vice-president; Robert Heitman, secretary; Cheryl McMullen, treasurer; and Melissa Voshell and Terry Greene, public relations.

Student squad captains were Jack McLaughlin, policy; Sheree Notch, original oratory and mock trial; Kathryn Miller, dramatic interpretation; Adam Jones, humorous interpretation; Justin Virant, congress and extemp; and Melissa Voshell, Lincoln Douglas.

Each year the teams set goals to achieve for the year. This year they campaigned for 91 in '91, a project to earn 91 NFL degrees in 1991. Reaching this goal earned the team first place in the state for achieving the most degrees during the year.

The team attended over 15 tournaments, including Mid-America Cup, Bridley, and Dowling Holiday Classic. They also competed in such speech contests as American Oratory and VFW.

With the help of parents, teachers, volunteers, student director Menesh Patel and co-director Jodi Puls, the team hosted a forensics tournament. The Railsplitter was a success. Over ten schools competed in the tournament held February 1-2. Six events were offered and plaques were awarded to the top three debaters in each.

Another program with a promise of greatness was Mock Trial, consisting of two teams with four attorneys, three witnesses and two alternates on each. Teams tried a case that prosecuted a mother who used cocaine during her pregnancy and killed her baby.

Show Choir does well in outstanding, fun year

A year for firsts, the 1990-91 Swing Choir experienced a few of their own. First female president Megan Scritchfield and first female drummer Christy Newkirk helped the group through many rough hours of practices, performances, and competitions.

All the hard work paid off for the group when they attended three major competitions. They competed and performed well at the LaCrosse, Wisconsin competition, the McDonalds competition in Urbandale, and the Cedar Rapids Jefferson Invitational. "The competitions are a lot of hard work and a lot of fun," said Senior Greg Blomgren.

Director Carroll Bennink commented, "Groups and individuals come and go, years pass one after another without a lot of change. Bright moments occur that make one glad and happy to be a teacher. The young men and women who make up the 1990-91 Show Choir will always be a wonderful, bright memory for me."

Chamber/Prep

Chamber Chorale members were selected last spring by Director Carroll Bennink. The group is comprised of the most talented voices in Lincoln.

All-State tryouts, fall and spring shows, and caroling kept the choir busy this year.

Prep-Swing was selected through auditions last spring with the song What a Team. In the fall, work was begun on new music for the Homecoming pep assembly and their part of the Show-Choir Fall Show. As usual, November and December were taken up with shows for the elementary and middle schools and gigs at various malls downtown. 1991 started with fast, hard work for competitions at Urbandale and Cedar Rapids. The year was concluded with the Prep-Swing Show. Bennink said "It's been a great year and we're ready to move on to greater heights."

Show Girls make debut at Lincoln

Show Girls is a 27-member swing choir that made it's debut at Lincoln this year. This group is composed of freshman, sophomores, and junior girls. Music is performed in 3-part harmony and choreographed. professionally. Show Girls have performed for the community, schools, and competed in the Urbandale Swing Choir Contest. It is directed by Janice Cord.

Concert Choir has a successful year

Concert Choir had another successful year highlighted by their fall concert. They also performed a spring concert in April and a Christmas concert in December. Every year they sing at commencement. All members of the group help with fund raisers to be able to buy more sheet music. They competed in a Large Group Contest and got high ratings with such songs as How Excellent Thy Name and Exultate Deo. The choir is directed by Carroll Bennink.

Iowa music students tryout for All-State

Music students from all over Iowa met at Indianola High School, all hoping to be selected as a member of the elite All-State music group.

Hopes were high as tryouts began. Quartets were formed by combining an alto, a tenor, a soprano, and a bass. Each quartet sang before a judge. As time dragged on, recalls were announced. The day ended with both tears and cheers when the winners were announced.

Of the 1,150 chosen, nine were Lincoln students: Tracy Zeliadt, Robert Sieburns, Beth Beenkin, Julie Janes, Lisa Donlinger, Tom Juneau, Bridget Baker, and Tim Gale. In the fall of 1990, those chosen performed at Hilton Coliseum in Ames.

Girls' Varsity Choir puts on great show

Varsity Choir is an all women's group comprised of over 60 members. The group performs many different styles of music, all sung in three and four-part harmony.

Varsity Choir presented fall, winter, and spring concerts. They performed at contest and at commencement. After seeing the spring concert, Senior Christina Schaffner commented on the group saying they did an "exceptional job."

The group is considered a preparatory performance group for Concert Choir, Chamber Chorale, and the three swing choirs.

Melodrama, musical chosen for fall, spring productions

Lily, the Felon's Daughter and West Side Story were chosen for the fall and spring productions performed by the drama department.

Lily, the Felon's Daughter was the first play to hit the stage. The melodrama was performed November 2-3. It is a story of love, greed, thievery, and treachery, complete with an evil villain, a beautiful girl, and a handsome hero. The play is set at the turn of the century.

West Side Story was presented by the combined efforts of the drama and vocal music departments, April 12-13. It was the only musical to be performed since 1986. The play is a modern day version of Romeo and Juliet. It deals with the struggles of two gangs, the Sharks and the Jets. The Jets are an American gang and the Sharks are a Puerto Rican gang. Within the story of the gangs, there are conflicts of love between innocent Maria and ex-gang member, Tony.

Student Tutors, Student Service

Each semester, a few select students are chosen out of the entire student body to tutor students. These students work one hour out of their day in the tutoring section of the library.

Another group of students that help out in a big way are student helpers. These students are selected by teachers to help individual teachers and to work in various offices. The students earn up to a quarter credit for each semester.

the RAILSPLITTER

The Railsplitter staff, under the guidance of Editor-In-Chief Jason Villalobos and Adviser Diane Weir, worked together to complete ten issues. Continuing to strive for excellence, the 18-member staff worked daily to seek out interesting and intriguing topics for each issue of the Railsplitter. Opinions expressed by students, faculty, and parents in the form of Rail Mail added to the newspaper's success.

"Being editor of the Railsplitter has been a very stressful but fun experience. The staff has worked extremely hard to meet the many deadlines and new challenges," said Editor-in-Chief Jason Villalobos.

"This was the first year in many years that letters were submitted for each issue. Rail Mail played a big part in the editorial page's success. I'm proud to say that I was co-editor of that page," said Editorial Co-editor Jennifer Isenhower.

Staff brings imaginative ideas to life in yearbook

Said and Done was chosen as the theme for this yearbook. Along with the theme, the school's colors and name were used on the cover to give it a more traditional look.

Adviser Diane Weir and Editors-In-Chief Rusty Damante and Mike McIntosh supervised a staff of 21 people. The staff worked many hours to put together a yearbook filled with new and creative ideas. The decision was made to include more color pages and add parent ads for a more personal touch.

While putting the yearbook together, the staff learned the importance of deadlines and working together. After the completion of the yearbook, the staff felt a great sense of accomplishment.

"Being in charge of the production of the yearbook was one of the most stressful, rewarding things we've ever done. At first, it looked like we'd never complete it, but the staff pulled together and made a yearbook that we can be proud of," commented Editors-In-Chief Rusty Damante and Mike McIntosh.

Softball team wins 20 for nine straight years

Under first year coach Roger Roland the softball team finished with a record of 21-12, placing them third in the Metro. This was the ninth consecutive year of 20 plus wins. The season ended with a loss to Valley in the Regionals.

The team had three graduating seniors, Kim Wilson, Tonya Poortinga, and Tisha Free.

Senior Heidi Hoganson and Sophomore Kiersten Pauling were both selected first team All-Metro.

Senior Tammie Glick said "With seven starters returning, next year looks promising with lots of experience and team unity."

Coach Roger Roland said "After getting off to a slow start, we pulled together and had many big victories. By the end of the season, we were one of the best teams in the state."

Six Baggers earn All Metro-Honors

Baggers ended the season with a 14-16 win, loss record. Sacrificing a lot of close games to their lack of offensive ability the team's defense always remained their strong point. The only returning starter Bill Fanter had the second highest batting average and highest stolen base average for the year.

Russ Hall and Jon Graham were named to the Urbandale All Tournament Team. Scott Lundgren and Dan Bougher received placement on the Indianola All Tournament Team.

Russ Hall received first team All-Metro and second team All-District. Jon Graham was named second team All-Metro. Honorable-Mention went to Jonathon Durbin, Dan Bougher, Bill Fanter, Mike O'Conner. Jonathon Durbin also received Metro-academic All Conference Team.

SOCCER

Due to a tough season the Kickers did not live up to early expectations, finishing the season with a 5-10-1 record. Senior Dean Reed said, "We had a rough season last year, but next year we'll have a young, experienced team returning."

Kickers showed their talent in the game against a very good Dowling team, losing in the last 15 seconds.

Five players were voted to the All-Conference Teams. Scott Jansen was first team All Metro, Joshua Konkol took second team All Metro, and Terry Koncholski, John Bergman, and Bill Wilson earned Honorable Mention.

GOLF

The boys golf team had a good season, considering that they were a small team in a very competitive Metro league. Co-Captain Adam Rappaport said, "The season was a little disappointing, but the competition was very strong in the Metro."

The Linksters placed fourth in the district meet and then fourth again in the Metro Conference finals to finish fourth overall in the Metro.

The team was led by Senior Adam Rappaport and Junior Chad Veech. Veech finished the season ranked ninth in the Metro and Rappaport was ranked tenth in the Metro.

Pauling wins state title; Harriers gain confidence

The girls' cross country team finished the season with an exciting moment. Sophomore Kiersten Pauling won the state title by one second. "I didn't want to settle for second again," she said. "I almost gave up, but I knew this was my last race of the year." Kiersten also placed first in all meets except one close second at the S.E. Polk Triangular.

Other members of the team did well also. Co-captain Tracey Olerich commented, "Keisha Cox and Rochelle James came a long way for us as freshmen. Even with the lack of experience, they gave a lot of support and confidence."

The boys cross country team had a better season than last year. Junior Jim Roach and sophomore Dennis Alt were the two returning letterwinners. Junior Sam Teigen finished first in his division at the start of the season and in the top ten at the succeeding meets. "I had a pretty good year, medaling in all of my races. But due to lack of participation and experience, the team suffered," Teigen summed up.

Spikers finish fourth in Metro despite disappointing season

Six volleyball players were named to All-Conference teams. Senior Natalie Driscoll and Sophomore Mindy Hansell were named 1st team All-Metro. Senior Tina Wagner was named 2nd team All-Metro, while Senior Tracie Alt, Sophomore Martha Clark, and Freshman Danni Bagbey were named Honorable Mention.

Senior Marti Evans did not participate because of a broken leg. The loss of Evans left a position to be filled by a less experienced player. This really hurt the team because Evans had been a 2-year starter.

A highlight to the season was a 1st place finish in the Oskaloosa tournament. The Spikers finished 2nd in the Indianola tournament. Coach Bob Corey said, "The season didn't end the way we wanted it to, but with the experience that we gained this year, next year's team should do pretty well." The Spikers ended their season with a loss to Dowling in the first round of the District tournament. The team's final game record was 63-36, placing them 4th in the Metro. Senior Natalie Driscoll said, "Because we had a lot of positions to fill this year, our inexperience didn't allow us to go as far as we had hoped."

Railsplitters earn 6-3 record; Miller chosen coach of year

The Gridders finished their seasons with a very successful 6-3 record. The Rails were the only team in the state to have finished with this record to not make the playoffs.

Several players made All-Metro honors. First team picks were Seniors Dan Aldini, Bill Fanter, Dion Manuel, Bill Willers, and Junior Chad Ross. Second team All-Metro honors went to Seniors Damon Bartling, Chris Latcham, Matt Law, and Juniors Jason Cox, Kelly Forrester, and Brian Wasko.

Coach Tim Miller was selected as the Southeast Iowa Coach of the year. He led the All-State team in the Shrine bowl held in early August.

Young Gridders show pride and enthusiasm

The sophomore football players ended the season with a record of 5-3. After losses to Newton, Marshalltown, and Ames, they came around to win the next two games over Roosevelt and Hoover. The sophomores biggest victory of the year was a 39-6 win over Dowling. Leading rushers in the game were Jason Storm, 171 yards; A. J. Russo, 137; yards and Chad Winfrey, 80 yards.

In the first game of the year the freshmen team beat Indianola. The freshman suffered their first loss when they faced Ames in the second game of the year. The freshman then went on to win the next three games over Hoover, Roosevelt, and North, giving the team a 4-1 record.

Girls swim team excels to break school record

Swimming against eight of the top twenty teams in the state, the Tankers had a tough season.

Two of the only four seniors on the team were a big influence on the 200 yard freestyle relay. The team broke the school record with a time of 1:54. Relay team members were Julie Stundins, Sandy Stundins, Rhonda Grey, and Angela Earheart.

Diver Debbie McVey was honored with first place at the District meet where the team finished sixth overall.

The Tankers qualified Julie Stundins in the 100 backstroke for state. Julie finished with a strong twelfth place. Debbie McVey also qualified and finished tenth overall.

Divers Clark, Castle place at state meet

The Boys' Swim Team, led by a strong sophomore and junior class, qualified four swimmers and two divers to the state meet. The Tankers ended the season with a 4-6 record.

Divers Floyd Castle and Brett Clark took turns breaking the school record for six dives. During the season Clark won first places at the Hoover Invitational, Metro, and Districts. He ended up breaking the school record at the Urbandale meet with a score of 294.15. Both divers competed at the state meet and Clark placed third and Castle placed fourth.

Outstanding Freshman Kevin Thompson won the 100 yard breaststroke 6 out of the 9 dual meets he swam. He qualified for the state meet in the breaststroke and the 200 yard free relay. The relay consisted of Greg Hein, Bryan Hendricks, Brandon Donaldson, and Kevin Thompson.

Grapplers struggle through tough dual meet season

The wrestling team struggled through the dual meet season. They were forced to forfeit as many as three weights at any given meet and ended their season with an uncharacteristic 6-8 dual meet record.

On Saturdays, however, that same team became somewhat powerful in tournaments. With strong records, many Rails were highly seeded, and with good pinning techniques, the extra points mounted and allowed the Grapplers to win the Ottumwa Tournament and place not lower than fourth in any other weekend contest.

Leading the way for Lincoln were senior 112 pounder Jerry Mauk (30-1-1 overall, undefeated in tournament competition), junior 125 pounder Trenton Powell (26-6, 15 pins), senior 130 pounder Dan Remele (31-4, once beaten in tournaments) junior 135 pounder Joe Chandler (20-7-1), and senior 160 pounder Chad Davidson (25-10, 13 pins), who improved from a 1990 record of 17-17 to qualify for the 1991 state meet.

Advancing to state, after winning districts, Dan Remele and Jerry Mauk each lost only once at state to state champions and were awarded third place medals.

With several juniors returning next year, Coach Mike McGivern said, "If we can fill the weights we had to forfeit this year and get more freshmen to step forward, we will definitely be competitive next year."

Girls have excellent season; many Metro records broken

The girls varsity basketball team had an outstanding season, finishing second in the Metro Conference with a 15-4 win-loss record. Despite their loss to East in the sectional tournament, their season was highlighted with a victory over the previously top-ranked and undefeated Dowling Maroons.

At one point in the season the Cagers were ranked as high as sixth in the state and broke the Metro records for best offensive average (67.6 points per game) and best defensive average (43.3 points per game).

Individual honors stacked up at the end of the season for the Rails. Tracey Olerich received 3rd team All-State, 1st team All-Region, 1st team All-Metro for both the Register and coaches' poll. Olerich was also Channel 5's Athlete of the Week. Kiersten Pauling received 1st team All-Region, the coaches' 1st team All-Metro, and the Register's 2nd team All-Metro. Nicole Tuller received the coaches' 2nd team All-Metro, the Register's special mention All-Metro, and Academic All-Conference. Tina Burgett and Amanda Simmons received honorable mention for All-Metro and Gretchen Jensen received Academic All-conference.

Varsity basketball earns season record of .500

The boys' basketball team exceeded most expectations by finishing the season with a .500 record at 10-10.

The team had a couple of tough losses to Roosevelt and lost to fourth rated North by only two points.

The highlight of the season came when the team went against an undefeated Valley High team ranked second in state. It was a close fought game going into double overtime with the Cagers holding on for the victory 63-57.

The big story of the year was the arrival of first year head coach John Labonia. Coach Labonia came out of coaching retirement to become the head coach at Lincoln. Coach Labonia has two state championships behind him: Dowling in 1979 and St. Alberts of Council Bluffs in 1974.

Three players were honored for their talents: Greg Blomgren received first team All-Metro honors and third team All-State. Chad Prenosil earned second team All-Metro and Jim Roach received Honorable Mention.

Senior experience offers leadership

Eight letterwinners returned to the girls' tennis team to provide strength, experience and considerable depth. In the 1990 season the girls team won the Metro championship and made it as far as sub-state.

Due to the wet spring the tennis teams had a difficult time practicing and playing matches.

The boys started off the season by winning their first match. The team had six returning letterwinners which provided a lot of experience to help the team.

Unexpected help from four players who joined the team in their senior year provided leadership in the upcoming season. When Bill Fanter was asked why he joined the team he replied, "I thought this would be a great way to spend my spare time."

Boys, girls track excel as season progresses

The track season for both boys and girls started out slowly. Many meets were cancelled because of the wet weather.

Boys' track opened their season at the University of Northern Iowa Dickenson Relays March 29 at UNI and at an indoor meet held March 16 at Iowa State University.

Returning letterwinners were Ken Alexander, Alex Desqueron, Corey Hill, Chris Latchem, Matt Law, Scott Mulhern, Richie Oxford, Chad Rankin, A.J. Russo, Bill Sheesly, Matt Smith, Sam Teigen, Chad Veach, Brian Wasko, Bill Wilson, and Chad Winfry.

Girls' track started their season with an indoor meet in Norwalk April 8.

The returning letterwinners were Angie Bowman, Jennifer Brown, Jill Carder, Angela Clarahan, Marla Coleman, Heidi Hoganson, Kerri Loughry, Jody Martindale, Tracey Olerich, and Kiersten Pauling.

Girls' golf team has disappointing season

Although they had a wet start, a young girls' golf team had a rebuilding season. Coach Jerry Sharnter said, "Since the golf team is made-up of a lot of young girls, there is room for improvement. 'They keep getting better with each practice and meet.'"

At the Valley Classic, the first meet of the year, battling the rain, the girls finished ninth out of thirteen teams. A few meets were cancelled due to rain. Senior captain Gretchen Jensen said, "It's been a rainy season, but when the weather has been good, the team has shown improvement."

Difficult year provides challenge, opportunity

Thomas R. Drake in his second year as principal looked at the 1990-91 school year as a year filled with challenges and opportunities. Drake said, "The problems with are bookkeeping situation created a difficult situation for all of us. However, it was also an opportunity for the staff to demonstrate its professionalism, the student their pride, and the community their support of the Lincoln program. It was impressive to see the Lincoln community maintain its program in the highest standards during this time.

"Goals for the future will include a look at restructuring the school day, establishing an alumni foundation, and continuing to provide the opportunity for input from staff, students, and community regarding the Lincoln program. Lincoln has a great foundation and tradition. It is from that foundation that we can work to grow even stronger in the years to come."

DECA

DECA, Distributive Education Clubs of America, provided juniors and seniors with an opportunity to develop retail and marketing skills. Students are released in the afternoon to work at jobs requiring skills that relate to their class work.

DECA fund raisers included the selling of senior sweatshirts and food items. The money raised went toward buying doughnuts for the classes.

Class presidents are Scott Dennis, Lori Carter, and Chris Wood.

BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS OF AMERICA

Junior and senior students who wish to gain experience in preparing for office occupations are actively involved in the Office Education Program. Each afternoon these students work in offices throughout the Des Moines business community from three to five hours as typists, secretaries, receptionists, proof operators, and accounting clerks.

The members help serve the community by helping the underprivileged, ill, aged, and mentally and physically handicapped by hosting holiday parties for them.

They prepare for leadership roles through workshops and conferences and develop their professionalism with speakers, tours, and seminars.

Business Professionals of America officers are Janene Brooks, president; Katie Gordon, vice-president; Paula Sease, treasurer; Stacy Culver, secretary; Karen Anderson, reporter; and Amy Roy, historian.

Driver Education, Gym

Driver education is the class most participated in at Lincoln. This course is offered the first semester only. Five driving instructors handle approximately 300 students. The class includes three requirements; simulator, class, and car.

All students at Lincoln are required to take physical education. Freshmen take it four days a week; Sophomores and juniors are required to take it two days a week. Seniors take contract P.E. and are required to turn in a signed contract P.E. card certifying that they participated in some type of physical activity.

New computers help students use Library

By saving Hy-Vee tapes, the library was able to obtain three Apple computers and a printer. They also obtained a new computer called N.E.W.S. Iowa, an online career database used in cooperation with Iowa Methodist Medical Center and the Counseling Center.

In the Media Center-TV room, a modem and Apple IIe are hooked up to Cable TV. Everyday the news comes from CNN and is primarily used by Carol Dickey, Tom Gruis, Joani Hollingsworth, Linda Schlak and Carl Van Tuyl for their classes.

Student Center provides juniors and seniors with the chance to relax, enjoy refreshments, video games, and study too. The Center is an alternative to a study hall.

The senior class of 1991 voted for officers in November. They were Greg Blomgren, president; Rusty Damante, vice-president of banquet; Dion Manuel, vice-president of prom; Jennifer Swindler and Jane Schneller, treasurers; and Sarah Meline and Megan Scritchfield, class representatives.

The Senior Banquet was held at the University Park Inn on April 25. The theme was Together We Stand. Vice-president Rusty Damante opened the night as master of ceremonies. Student speakers for the night were President Greg Blomgren, Meenu Tavathia, Angie Bowman, and foreign exchange student Cynthia Gabrielse.

The Senior Prom was held at a new and exciting location. The prom committee chose, by popular demand, the Iowa State Historical Building. The theme was Together One Last Time and the color scheme was silver, black, and teal. Music for the evening was provided by local DJ Tim White.

Class Day took place on Friday, May 24 in the Bowen Roundhouse. Vice-president Rusty Damante started the program off with the greeting. Class Representative Sarah Meline led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance, and Greg Blomgren gave the traditional president's speech. Class Representative Megan Scritchfield handed down the class key to Junior Sam Teigen. Vice-president Dion Manuel was presented with the plaque. Treasurer Jennifer Swindler explained the ribbon cutting ceremony and Treasurer Jane Schneller explained the roses. Throughout the Class Day ceremonies, outstanding seniors and top 3 and 15 percent were recognized.

The final moment for the graduating class occurred at Commencement. It was held at Veterans Memorial Auditorium on May 29. Student speakers were Tanya Lancee, Matt Wilson, Chris Young, and Tammy Leib.

Our past years spent at Lincoln have been among the better of our lives, but the best is yet to come! College, careers, companions, and our futures await us. We've accomplished a lot, maturing into responsible young adults. We can always look back with pride on one accomplishment in particular: we stood together, graduated high school, and it's all SAID and DONE!

A friend will tell you:

"It was
us."

At Planned Parenthood, protecting your privacy is as important to us as it is to you. When you want information about birth control and your health. When you need an exam or birth control supplies. Whenever you need health care you can trust.

We have what you need to protect your health. All in one location. All from friendly, caring people. Come see us. It's just between us.

Good things come in safe packages.

Our foam packages are 100% recyclable. McDonald's® was also the first in the food service industry to require that our packaging be made without fully halogenated chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs).

That's better for all of us, because it's better for the ozone. And because foam is such a good insulator, everything is just the temperature it ought to be.

We don't want to be part of the solid waste problem. We want to be part of the solution. And still give you a great tasting hamburger.

To find out more about what McDonald's is doing to contribute to a better environment, stop by your local McDonald's restaurant and ask for our booklet, "McDonald's Packaging: The Facts."

Students have fun time during spring vacation

Spring break, March 16-24, was a chance for students to relax, have fun, and to be with friends. For seniors, it was a week that will be remembered for a long time.

March 16, students began their well-deserved vacations. Some headed for the snow-capped mountains of Colorado. Others hit the beaches of South Padre Island, Florida, Hawaii, California, and the Bahamas. At the beaches, many went sailing and water skiing. Texas, New York and Kansas City were other popular hot spots.

"Spring break was a lot of fun. I can't wait until next year," said Senior Brad Allen, who went to Florida.

1. Travis Dinnen and Greg Blomgren get ready to take a dip in the ocean. 2. Some seniors are all dressed up, but they have no place to go. 3. Brad Allen and Adam Rappaport enjoy the Florida beaches. 4. Carla and Yvonne Bauer go on a shopping spree. 5. Jenny Nessen prepares to do the Mexican hat dance around Jason Villalobos. 6. Sarah Meline, Tanya Lancee, Tina Burgett, and Heather Anderson purchase a few souvenirs. 7. Tina Burgett and Jodi Levang pose for the cover of the Sports Illustrated Swim Suit issue. 8. Stephanie Taylor and Megan Scritchfield make some feathered friends.

IN MEMORY OF TYSON HOWE

August 25, 1974 - April 21, 1991

I missed him when the sun began to bend
I found him when I had lost my friend
With many a tear I went in search of him
Climbing emotions which did still ascend
Though I have lost my dearest friend
Though I still grieve for him,
I know I'll be there with him in the End
